'Hill Farm Fall Festival' at Our Saviour's Set For October 6 Proceeds to Benefit Seafarers & International House

FAIRFIELD, Conn., September 22, 2012 – The third annual “Hill Farm Fall Festival” will be held at Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church in Fairfield on Saturday, October 6. The event, from 10 am to 4 pm, will feature arts and crafts vendors, a selection of food and drink, and entertainment for children.

A limited number of spaces for local artisans and vendors are still available at $30 per space. For more information, contact Bob Roy at (203) 218-0430 or (203) 366-2108.

Proceeds will go to Seafarers & International House (www.sihnyc.org), a mission that provides aid and support to seafarers who work, often under difficult conditions and for low pay, aboard the ships that bring goods into our local ports. The organization also offers aid to refugees and asylum-seekers through its guesthouse in New York City.

In the event of inclement weather, the fair will be rescheduled for Saturday, October 13.

Admission and parking are free. Our Saviour’s is located at 160 Hill Farm Road (corner Duck Farm Road) in Fairfield. For more information, contact the church at (203) 255-0545.

About Our Saviour's

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), reaches out to the world and to its local communities with the Good News of the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The congregation receives strength for this mission through Worship, Christian Education, Service, Benevolent Giving, Witness, Mutual Support and a commitment to grow in faith and participation. Our Saviour's is guided in the belief that, "As God Gives to Us, So We Give to Others."

Holy Communion is celebrated during worship services at 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. each Sunday. The church also offers Sunday School and Adult Discussion programs at 9:30 a.m. For more information, please call (203) 255-0545 or visit us at www.oursaviours.net.
