Fairfield Singer Katie Jenks to Perform at Our Saviour's June 9 Concert to Support Church's Music Internship Program

FAIRFIELD, Conn., May 29, 2013 – Katie Jenks, a singer and music education student from Fairfield, will perform in a recital at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church on Sunday, June 9, at 3:00 pm. The event is open to the public.

Jenks, who just completed her junior year at New York University's Steinhardt School, will perform a varied program of classical and popular vocal works, accompanied by pianist Galen Tate.

The 21-year-old soprano, a graduate of Fairfield Warde High School, is a music intern at Our Saviour's and continues to sing in the church's Adult Choir, under the direction of Dr. Alice Caldwell. Tate is an organist at St. Thomas More Church in Darien and is active in the area as a choral accompanist.

The Music Internship Program at Our Saviour's supports college-level study in music for young people who have contributed to the church's music ministry. A free-will offering will be collected at the concert to support the program, and a reception with light refreshments will be held after the performance.

Our Saviour's is located at 160 Hill Farm Road (corner Duck Farm Road) in Fairfield. For more information, contact the church at (203) 255-0545.
