Our Saviour's to Host Community Sing-Along

Famed Conductor and Composer Nick Page to Lead November 12 Event

FAIRFIELD, Conn., October 20, 2006 – Our Saviour's Lutheran Church will present a community sing-along, "Anyone Can Sing With Power," led by Nick Page, a Boston-based conductor, composer and song leader, on Sunday, November 12, 2006, at 7:00 p.m. The event is open to the public and admission is free.

Assisted by the choirs and instrumentalists of Our Saviour's, Page will lead the audience in singing "inspirational songs of power and joy" from all over the world.

"We invite our neighbors in the Fairfield area to join us for an evening of inspirational singing where the audience becomes the choir," said Dr. Alice Caldwell, music director of Our Saviour's. "A sing-along with Nick Page is not just about singing, it is also about community building and communicating a humanitarian message of concern for others."

Fairfield audiences have already experienced Nick Page in his appearances with the Fairfield County Children's Choir in 2002 and 2004.

"Nick Page's soul is filled with a very special and unique goodness (and I don't use that word lightly) that reaches deep into the minds and souls of those with whom he works," said Dr. Donald Neuen, professor of conducting and director of choral activities at UCLA, and a music associate at The Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, Calif.

"Nick Page embraces the whole world in his soul and in his music. He inspires people through song like few others, empowering them in the process," said Emily Ellsworth, director, Glen Ellyn Children's Chorus in Chicago

For more information about the November 12 sing-along and other programs, contact the church at (203) 255-0545. Our Saviour's is located at 160 Hill Farm Road (corner of Duck Farm Road) in Fairfield. For more information about Nick Page, visit www.nickmusic.com.

About Our Saviour's
